Sandra Faber has been appointed a local coordinator for Monadnock at Home, announced by Executive Director Cynthia Bowen. Faber also will be assisting with some of the organizational responsibilities.

Faber, who has a Bachelor of Science in business/marketing from Bentley University, has worked for two New Hampshire nonprofits, managing their operations, marketing and event planning.

She is actively engaged in the community of Hancock where she has lived with her husband and two children for 12 years.

As she begins her new role at MaH, she looks forward to working with local seniors.
