

Staff vacancy: Monadnock at Home is seeking a Volunteer Coordinator, a part-time position that will facilitate our work of in the eastern Monadnock region.

The perfect candidate will have experience with volunteer recruitment and service, excellent people skills, knowledge of local communities and their services, be highly organized and comfortable with computer use and have the desire to define and expedite the services that enable people to stay in their homes as they age.

Interested applicants should submit a letter of intent, including a bit about yourself, why this job is of interest to you and the names and phone numbers of two references who know you (include their connection to the community). Please send the requested information to:

ed@monadnockathome.org

or mail to: Monadnock at Home, PO Box 422, Jaffrey, NH 03452, no later than September 12, 2014.